Bridal Service

At Élan Hair Design, we know how important it is to get your hair absolutely perfect on your big day.

Established in 1971, our friendly, dedicated and highly professional bridal team take care of everything so you can relax and enjoy your big day without worrying about your hair.

We prepare you for hair perfection in the lead up to your wedding and, when your special day finally arrives, our talented, creative team can prepare you in the salon or at a location of your choice.

Whether your hair is short or long and if you need colour, highlights or decorative features that are truly original, let Élan add touches of brilliance to create a unique and unforgettable look that you will treasure throughout your life.

For the complete Wedding service, Élan's resident therapist, make up artist and nail technician can take care of makeup, manicure and nail extensions for the ultimate bridal beauty regime on the most important event in your life.
